

Donations Policy

The Library only accepts the following donations on the understanding that they will become the property of the Library and the Library reserves the right to evaluate, use or dispose of the materials as it deems appropriate. Once donated, ownership is transferred to the library and items are not returnable.

- Local studies material,
- New books from local author
- Government material